Aptitude Test in Speaking

Exam Components:

- Applicants will be asked to read 10–15 lines of a printed prose text aloud; if necessary, they will be asked to reproduce the material or discuss its content. The text will be selected from works in children’s literature. Applicants will be given time to look over and become acquainted with the text before reading it aloud.
- Applicants’ ability to formulate and express their thoughts will be evaluated in the course of a short conversation.
