On the southern part of Germany, about 30 minutes from Stuttgart, the university in the city of Schwäbisch Gmünd is open to primary and pre-school/kindergarten education students of ELTE TÓK. Students can study both in German and English.

There are 6 places annually for students to apply for both subject areas.

Semesters start in October and in April, both is available for mobility. The English language programme for pre-school/kindergarten education students are available in Spring only.

Accommodation:

Erasmus applicants are automatically registered to the university halls of residence. In case of very good personal reason (e.g. moving with the whole family), it is obligatory to stay in halls. Concerning the price of accommodation, this is the best option to have (approx. 270€/month). Payment in advance is not necessary, each student will have a German bank account opened by the university, from this account the halls automatically takes the monthly amount of payment.

The halls are about 10-minute walk from the university. You can find details HERE.

Students also receive a free card for public transportation that they can use on local buses and for a while, on the train.

Travel:

There is no direct flight to Schwäbisch Gmünd from Budapest. The fastest way to get there is to fly directly to Stuttgart, then take the train from the central station directly to Schwäbisch Gmünd (approx. 30-40 minutes). The connection between the two cities is excellent.

There is a train leaving from Budapest to Stuttgart, but it takes minimum two changes of train to get to Schwäbisch Gmünd.

Please make sure to check the Consular Services website for information regarding travel to EU countries.
