Act CCIV of 2011 on National Higher Education Article 50(1):

The higher education institution shall issue a final certificate (absolutorium) to students who have fulfilled the study and examination requirements prescribed in the curriculum, completed the required practice period and acquired the required number of credits.

Please check your completed and current courses in Neptun. If you find that some courses or credits are missing, you may submit a late course registration request until the deadline defined in Section 62/A of the Academic Regulations for Students.

The student status is terminated on the last day of the semester in which the final certificate is obtained: the last day of the current spring semester is 30 January 2027.

According to Section 81(6) of the Academic Regulations for Students:

Students who

c) started their studies in accordance with Act CCIV of 2011 on Hungarian National Higher Education, that is, on or after 1 September 2012, may take their final exam during any exam period within 2 years of the expiry of their student status, in line with the valid training requirements. Taking the final exam more than 2 years after the issuance of their final certificate, however, may be subject to certain conditions established by the University. Students who started their studies in accordance with Act CCIV of 2011 on Hungarian National Higher Education shall not be granted permission to take the final exam more than 5 years after the expiry of their student status.

The student can take the final exam if he/she:

- registered for the final exam until the designated deadline
- has obtained the final certificate (absolutorium)

- submitted the degree thesis by the deadline defined in Section 491(1) of the Academic Regulations for Students and the grade of the preliminary thesis review is at least pass
- owns no debt towards the University or the Faculty Library

Since the personal data in the diploma and the diploma supplement are taken from Neptun (name, date and place of birth, etc.), we kindly ask you to check them. If you find incorrect data in the issued diploma and its supplement, we will charge a fee for the correction.

You can request the modification of your personal data until the first day of the final examination period. Modification requests sent after the above-mentioned deadline entail the charge of a late fee and it is likely that the diploma will not be issued until the graduation ceremony. The date of the graduation ceremony will be published later.

A certificate about the diploma being issued may be requested five workdays after the final exam.

From the spring semester of 2023/2024 onwards, the Europass diploma supplement shall be issued electronically, so it gets printed at the student's request only. If you wish to receive your diploma supplement in printed form at the graduation ceremony, please write to th@tok.elte.hu by 21 January 2027.
