

PUBLIC TRANSPORT GUIDE TO BUDAPEST

Arriving to Budapest

Budapest can be reached from most European capital cities via airplane, or by train, bus, and car from neighbouring countries. Our airport can be found outside the city, approximately 30-40 minutes from the city centre. In the following GUIDE you can find some information and tips on how to reach the city centre by using different public transport options, shuttle bus services or taxi.

You can find all transportation option on the airport's website, too.

Public Transport in the city

From busses, trams, underground, suburban trains to renting a bike, Budapest offers a great variety of public transport opportunities with the support of Budapest Public Transport Company.

Please check they website to learn more about them.

Outside Budapest

There is a lot to explore outside the city! You can use train, bus and boat services to visit different locations of the country.

- Budapest has three big train stations with services to different directions. These are Budapest Déli pályaudvar, Budapest Keleti Pályaudvar, Budapest Nyugati pályaudvar.

For train information and schedule please visit the following website.

- In case you wish to travel by long distance buses which runs on a regular schedule every day please check the following website.
- For boat trips in and outside of the city, please check the following website.